

LIVES CRUSHED OUT
ON A MEXICAN ROADFATAL ACCIDENT OCCURRED
THIS MORNING.

Passenger Train On the Inter-Oceanic Line Was Wrecked and Three People Killed While Sixteen Were Hurt—Further Details of the Fall River Horror.

Jalapa, Mexico, June 15.—A passenger train on the Inter-Oceanic railway was derailed this morning and three people were killed and sixteen wounded.

Fall River, Mass., June 15.—The worst catastrophe that has visited this city since the Granite mill fire occurred yesterday at the Langley harness shop, a four-story building on Coney street. A new boiler exploded in the basement of the building, blowing out the entire end of the structure and allowing the upper floors to settle into a mass of ruins.

About forty-five people were at work in the shop, which at once took fire. The flames communicated with the ruins and began to burn briskly. The firemen rushed to the scene and exerted heroic efforts in their endeavor to rescue the imprisoned people. Ambulance calls were sent out hurriedly, and every physician who could be reached was sent at once to the scene. At 9:30 the fire had been quenched but it was still smoldering and the work of rescuing went on with great difficulty.

Most of the employees were women. A girl of the name of Jalbert and her sister-in-law who worked side by side on the third floor also escaped, one unhurt and the other with slight bruises. The Jalbert girl says there was a terrible report followed by a shock; the roof seemed to lift and then fall, completely demolishing the whole building. She and her sister-in-law were thrown into the middle of the road. The latter was badly cut about the face and arms.

The list of the dead:
BELLEFILLE, ADOLPH E., aged 45.
DUBE, ADELE, aged 20.
HORTON, LELIA, aged 17.
MURRAY, ROBERT, aged 31.

The injured:
Barry, Thomas, skull fractured and face and body badly burned; he will undoubtedly die.
Duroches, Mattie, bruises and burns; fatally.

The shock broke in the windows of the Stafford mill and injured some of the operatives. The harness shop is a total wreck. The Star Music hall was made a morgue, where Medical Examiner Dolan and a corps of physicians were installed. The engine was situated in the northwest corner of the building and was of fifty horse power. Engineer LePage is under arrest.

UNION VETERANS MEET.

Gathering at Caldwell, Ohio, Marred by Some Discontent.

Caldwell, Ohio, June 15.—Union veterans of the civil war representing every state in the Union are assembled here for the purpose of participating in the twenty-first annual national soldiers' reunion. It is thought, however, that the attendance would have been larger but for the fact that many objected to the purpose of the gathering as stated in the official call. The following is the clause to which exception was taken: "Every state shall send as many delegates as it deems proper, but no state shall have more or less than two votes in the convention, to the end that every state may have equal power to decide how the soldier vote of the union shall be cast in 1896. This is the great and only object of the gathering—the crystallization and solidification of the soldier vote."

The publication of the call was the signal for a storm of protest. It was maintained that action of this kind on the part of the veterans would do more harm than good to any cause in which they were interested.

TALKS FOR SILVER.

Bimetallist Addresses the Conservative Association of Belgium.

Brussels, June 15.—M. Alphonse Allard, who was a delegate from Belgium to the international monetary conference of 1892, in an address to the conservative association asserted that the protective policy of Belgium is the result of the currency difficulty, which he declared has divided the world into hostile camps and developed changes absolutely opposed to the interests of the gold countries and in favor of the silver currency nations. M. Allard also said that the fall in the prices of commodities is not due to overproduction, but to the scarcity of money caused by the demonetization of silver in 1873.

EIGHTY-FOUR YEARS OLD.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's Birthday Quietly Remembered.

Hartford, June 15.—Yesterday Harriet Beecher Stowe completed her 84th year. While there was no formal celebration of the event it was observed by her relatives and many of her friends throughout the world. She was in receipt of numberless telegrams and cable messages.

Bank Cashier Acquitted.

Brunswick, Ga., June 15.—Frank E. Cunningham, cashier of the Brunswick State bank, who has been on trial charged with felony, was acquitted yesterday afternoon. The bank failed in July, 1893, and it was charged that the cashier was cognizant of the depressed condition of the resources of the institution without notifying the stockholders of the fact. The verdict of acquittal is generally approved.

Oh's Murderer Indicted.

Trenton, N. J., June 15.—The Mercer county grand jury presented Justice Gummere with a batch of indictments which included that of John Collins colored, for murder in the first degree for the shooting of Frederick Ohl, the Princeton student.

TRADE IS ON THE BOOM AGAIN

Cheering Reports Are Sent Out By Dunn & Company's Agency.

New York, June 15.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "It is no longer a question whether business improves. Not for a long time have our reports from all parts of the country been so uniformly favorable. The daily average of bank clearings in June is 24.8 per cent larger than last year, though 11.4 per cent less than in 1892. The most potent influence has been the receipt of more favorable advices regarding growing crops. Labor troubles are getting out of the way; wages in many establishments are rising, and, with the iron industry just now leading, there is general improvement in manufactures. Monetary condition also helps. The time draws near when, with good crops, exports will bring gold hither, and though foreign operations in stocks and bonds have been insignificant this week, the effect of the previous transactions has not been exhausted."

"Much diminished receipts of money from the interior indicate better employment in business and especially at the West, the volume of commercial loans steadily rises and is now fair for this season, even in a good year. Western receipts for two weeks of June were 3,116,680 bushels of wheat, against 3,001,202 last year, while Atlantic exports, flour included, were only 2,364,847 bushels, against 4,630,227 last year. Effects of the rise in prices were seen in the official report of May exports, showing a decrease of 1,000,000 bushels from Atlantic, but an increase of 2,000,000 from Pacific in exports. The price was reduced 2½ in trading. Corn also declined about 1c, with better reports of growth."

"The official statement of 14.8 decrease in cotton acreage was quickly found. In view of revised government estimates for last year, to mean more than 20,000,000 acres now growing cotton, which much exceeds the best unofficial estimates, and from an area no greater over 9,000,000 bales were produced in 1891, so that the report gave no aid to prophets of evil. That some reduction would be well for the south is clear, but the heavy present surplus will cover a larger loss than seems probable. Cotton manufacturers look for a speedy settlement of labor troubles and find a moderate demand for low and medium, and heavy weight goods, while some of the cheaper lines of spring goods have been opened with encouraging results, but as to better trade there is still great uncertainty about prices. The anthracite coal trade does not maintain the improvement recently reported, and with palpable overproduction, bad faith being charged again, the price has declined 25 cents. The coke producers about Connellsville have not yet made open declaration of their new compact, but contracts are being made at $1.35 for the last half year, with provisions for advance if wages rise."

"Failures for the last week have been 241 in the United States, against 232 last year, and 24 in Canada, against 40 last year."

TO WATCH FOR FILIBUSTERS.

Raleigh Sails from New York to Patrol the Florida Coast.

Washington, June 15.—The Raleigh sailed from New York last evening for Key West. That point will be her headquarters, and she will patrol the Florida coast with her launches and boats to prevent Cuban filibustering expeditions. It is expected that the Raleigh will remain on that station for a month, and if at the end of that time it is still thought necessary to have a warship to assist in preventing filibustering expeditions it is expected that another vessel will be sent to relieve her, as owing to the extreme hot weather it would be severe service to keep one ship in Florida waters constantly.

Scheme of Silver Democrats.

Memphis, Tenn., June 15.—The movement inaugurated by prominent Democrats for the formation of a silver organization within the lines of the Democratic party is believed to be a step of the greatest importance in the campaign on the currency question. Senators Harris and Jones, in interviews, admit that it is the purpose of the league to secure control of the national Democratic convention by attending to all primaries and naming the delegates. They insist, however, that the league is strictly a Democratic organization.

Chinchbugs Leave Wheat for Corn.

Virginia, Ill., June 15.—An unexpected turn in crop conditions in Cass county has occurred which threatens the entire destruction of the corn crop. The wheat harvest is in full blast and the chinch bugs are leaving the wheat in stubble fields in enormous quantities and making a wholesale onslaught upon the corn. The wheat yield is very light and of poor quality. Oats is almost a total failure. Pastures are about all dried up, as there has been no rain for the past eight weeks. The drought is unprecedented in this section of the state.

Torpedo Boat Is Fast.

New London, Conn., June 15.—The torpedo boat Ericsson ran twenty-five miles on Long Island sound yesterday. Her engines and machinery worked admirably. She is said to have made a speed averaging twenty-five miles an hour. It is believed she will easily win a premium when she has her trial run.

France Counts on Russia.

Paris, June 15.—The Gaulois professes to believe that Russia will support France in Egypt in return for her assistance rendered to Russia by France in the China-Japanese protest. It is also believed that President Faure will accept the invitation to be present at the coronation of the czar of Moscow.

Gail Hamilton Improving.

She is able to take more nourishment than formerly. It is thought that if the improvement continues she may be able to be removed to her home in Salem, Mass., within a week or ten days.

FREEDOM IS CERTAIN
THE CUBANS CLAIMSPIRITED PROCLAMATION BY REVOLUTIONISTS.

Claim Made That the Deliverance of the Island From Spanish Domination is Already Assured—Two More Provinces Are in Revolt—Victory For Insurgents.

Tampa, Fla., June 15.—The following proclamation, translated, from the revolutionary committee of Havana, has been received from Cuba:

"To the Cuban People: Maximo Gomez is in command with 2,000 men. The Marquis of Santa Lucia, with the cry of 'Cuba Libre,' has joined him with 1,500 men. Twenty of the most noted gentlemen of Puerto Principe accompany the worthy son of Camaguey. There is no hope for Spain. Remidos has protected the landing of Roloff and his 280 men. He brings munitions of war and 10,000 pounds of dynamite. The landing of Yero and Seraphin Sanchez is confirmed. They bring American pyrotechnics. Santa Spirit has already seven armed bands. General Maceo, with his 6,000 Macheteros, is destroying and burning everything he finds in his way. Liberal Spaniards have nothing to fear. Lives and property will be respected while assistance is not rendered to the government."

"The autonomist party says that insurrection in arms is necessary to force the government to favor autonomy. Shame to these false patriots who live on miserable bread that the despot throws to them! Soldiers from Mahon, a Spanish province, have gone over to the insurgents' ranks. The daily expenses of Spaniards run up to $175,000. Martinez Campos has lost already 10,000 men. Soldiers die of fever in the streets of the city of Manzanillo. Famine spreads through the province of Cuba. In Baracoa and Guantanamo there are 18,000 insurgents in arms."

"Liberal Spaniards, the sons of Ringo and Pinto, are here for liberty. To arms and down with the metropolitan government and tyranny! Hurrah for Maximo Gomez!" Cuban advices received here are to the effect that 11,000 Spanish troops will land at Neuvas, in the northern coast of Cuba, today, being the second installment of troops dispatched to Camaguey by the home government.

News by steamer is that the provinces of Sigua and Gibara joined the revolution on the 11th and 12th inst., respectively. The volunteers have been ordered out, under the leadership of veterans. The volunteers refuse to respond unless under their own leaders. The majority of Marco Garcia's guerrillas of Santo Spirit have deserted to the insurgents. Reports are that Maceo is in full possession of the seaport near Manzanillo; that he cleared two ships of sugar loading for the United States last week.

Victory for Cuban Insurgents.

Key West, Fla., June 15.—A dispatch received here from Cuba says the engagement between the Spanish forces and the Cuban rebels near the city of Moron resulted in a victory for the insurgents and that they captured the town. The loss on each side was small. Further advices state that the government officials in Cuba will maintain a strict censorship over all telegrams and letters.

Filibusters Reach Cuba.

New York, June 15.—A special from Havana, Cuba, says: "Information has just reached here to the effect that the Cuban filibustering expedition on the tug George W. Childs, under command of Gen. Carlos Roloff and Gen. Sarafin Sanchez, which slipped away from the Florida coast Thursday, has landed the party, with arms and munitions of war at a point near Aguadores, in the province of Santiago de Cuba."

TWO YEARS FOR TAYLOR.

Defaulting Treasurer of South Dakota to Be Leniently Treated.

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 15.—An agreement has been reached between friends of absconding Treasurer Taylor and Attorney General Crawford whereby Taylor will return at once. The agreement is that Taylor will return to Pierre Tuesday next and surrender. He will pay over all money he has on hand, amounting to $45,000, and also personal property which is to be appraised at a liberal valuation. Taylor will then plead guilty and Judge Gaffy has agreed to call a special term of court and sentence him to the penitentiary for two years. It is further agreed that before the expiration of his sentence the governor will pardon him out and thus save him his citizenship.

Missouri Crops Above Average.

Mexico, Mo., June 15.—Rain began falling in this part of Missouri yesterday. The corn is clean and in excellent condition, but was beginning to suffer from lack of moisture. The oats crop is good, but wheat and grass are a little short. Taking everything into consideration the farmers feel very hopeful of reaping crops this year above the average.

New York, June 15.—Arrangements are being made for the convention of delegates from the societies of Irish nationalists in every city in the United States and Canada to lay the basis for an open agitation against English rule in Ireland, which will be held under the auspices of the Irish National League in a few weeks.

Vandalia, Ill., June 15.—Congressman Remann's condition has slightly improved during the past twenty-four hours. His mind is clearer and he was able to recognize and speak to the physicians. He is still unable to take nourishment. While his condition is still critical Drs. Hughes and Haller have not given up all hopes.

Va., June 15.—Nearly all the timber on the Crawford, Hart and Harrison tracts has been destroyed by forest fires and 500 acres of the Goff tract, part of 7,000 acres for which Mable & McClure recently paid $300,000, are a total loss. At this time great volumes of smoke can be seen on the west side of Rich mountain in the vicinity of the Curtis and Skidmore settlements, which it is feared are being destroyed. Communication with the burning region is entirely cut off.

Chicago Warehouse Burns.

Chicago, June 15.—The Oakland warehouse, a three-story brick building extending from No. 159 to No. 163 39th street, was burned out last evening at 10 o'clock. The loss on the building and the household goods stored in it will be practically complete. The building was worth $20,000 and was insured for $12,000. The value of the articles stored in the building is variously estimated and is probably about $75,000.

CARLISLE AT LOUISVILLE.

The Secretary of the Treasury Talks Against Silver.

Louisville, Ky., June 15.—Secretary Carlisle last evening made an address on the currency question. He repeated his argument that the undervalued metal would be driven out of the country by the adoption of a bimetallic system, and at some length paid attention to the claims that the fall in the price of silver was due to its demonetization. He said: "It is insisted that the fall in the price of silver is attributable to the legislation in Germany, the United States, France and various other countries during and since the year 1873, and most illogically it is also insisted that notwithstanding the reduced price of that metal is the result of the unfriendly action of a great many governments acting in concert and with a settled purpose, the United States alone can restore the value of silver. Of course if it required the action of twelve or thirteen different governments to bring the price of silver to its present state it would seem quite clear that no one of them alone could restore it. The fall in the price of silver was not due to the legislation complained of but to an enormous overproduction. While the farmers and other producers are struggling to live comfortably and meet their obligations, owners of silver mines have accumulated enormous fortunes. That the fiat of the government does not make money was illustrated by the history of the trade dollar. What happened to the trade dollar would be exactly what would happen to all other silver dollars if free and unlimited coinage was adopted."

FOURTEEN KILLED.

Terrible Accident to Mourners at an Austrian Funeral.

Vienna, June 15.—Seventy people gathered yesterday in the death chamber of a young man at Rovigno, on the west coast of Istria, on the Adriatic Sea. The flooring of the chamber collapsed, and all fell to the ground floor, and thence into a deep cellar. The walls of the house fell on top of the unfortunate victims. The inhabitants of the town hurried to the spot, and the fire brigade was called out, and the soldiers in the town rushed to the scene. All united in efforts to remove the debris. This being done, revealed the fact that fourteen of the mourners had been killed and thirty had been injured. The young woman who had been the fiancée of the deceased man was found dead in the ruins in a position close to the coffin.

Charged with Killing His Father.

Neighbors living across the street from the father's house say they have seen William Henry hanging around the house several times of late. The police arrested him on the charge of murdering his father.

The senate adjourned sine die a little after 11 o'clock, but the house held on till 12:33 in the morning.

Indiana Crop Outlook Near.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—Returns from 254 townships in this state show that the average amount of wheat plowed up is 4.5 per cent. It is estimated that the average yield in these townships will be 7.3 bushels an acre. If the reports are correct, and the same ratio will hold good throughout the state, the total yield for the year, based on an acreage of last year, will be only 19,815,307 bushels, a decrease of 61.2 per cent in the yield. It is expected that the reports from a large majority of the townships will be in during next week when a more concise estimate of the crop can be made than is now possible.

Race Riot Did Not Come Off.

Columbia, S. C., June 15.—The Abbeville rifles who were ordered by Gov. Evans to suppress a reported race riot at Mount Carmel arrived there at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. MUST NOT CARRY ARMS.

Trial of Alleged Lynchers of Barrett Scott Commenced.

Butte, Neb., June 15.—The celebrated Scott trial is now commenced. The attorney-general entered a nolle in the case of Pinkerman, Stanton, Roy, and Oberle, four of the defendants, leaving but three and reducing the pre-emptory challenges of the defendants from 112 to thirty-three. Two hundred talesmen have been called already and nine were passed for cause. At that rate it will take a week to secure a jury. An effort is being made to secure a tent owing to the poor sanitary condition of the building. The court instructed the sheriff and bailiff to see that no one entered the courtroom carrying arms. Excitement is very high, as the people of this county are indignant that the case is being tried in it, and the attorney-general is wholly responsible for this. To-day witnesses to the number of 200 will arrive. W. F. Gurley of Omaha is here to assist the state.

Will Meet at Fort Wayne.

Logansport, Ind., June 15.—Fort Wayne was decided upon as the next place of meeting of the Northern Indiana Editorial association. J. B. Can Race at Roby, Ind.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—The Supreme court adjourned yesterday without handing down the decision in the Roby case. The governor and the attorney-general had the appeal set forward and confidently expected the decision in the recent injunction case would come before the summer vacation. Placards have been posted in various parts of the city calling upon the inhabitants to display flags draped with crapes as long as the French ships are at Kiel.

DR. HENRY PALMER CALLED BY DEATH

THE END CAME WITHOUT WARNING LAST NIGHT.

He Retired About 11 O'clock and Was Seen Peacefully Sleeping By His Daughter at 1 O'clock a. m., But Was Found Lifeless By His Wife at 6—Sketch of His Life.

Upon the forehead of Dr. Henry Palmer, the blighting hand of death was laid at 1 o'clock this morning, and the grim reaper, who had scores of times been balked by the knowledge and skill of his present victim, was victorious at last.

Death came like sleep and his long and eventful life came to an end as peacefully as it had begun on the little New York farm, sixty-eight years before.

The announcement of the doctor's demise came like a shock to Janesville people this morning, for it was as sudden as it was unexpected. For many years it had been his custom, owing to the frequency of the night calls, to sleep in a room by himself. This room was off of the dining room and as a means of resting his busy brain, he would lie on the bed before retiring and read until the perplexing problems that were always bugging his powerful intellect, faded away and he became tired enough to go to sleep.

Read His Last Paper.

Following his usual custom, when he came home at 11 o'clock last night, Dr. Palmer retired to his room and picked up his paper. He lay on his right side, his usual position and after perusing the news of the day turned on his left side and closed his eyes. His daughter, who had been attending the Alumni banquet came home at 1 o'clock, at which time her father appeared to be sleeping peacefully. At 6 o'clock this morning Mrs. Palmer entered her husband's room and found him lifeless in his bed; and when Dr. W. H. Palmer arrived, he was of the opinion that his father had breathed his last soon after 1 o'clock, and probably within a few minutes of the time at which his daughter took the last look at him while his powerful nature was still animated by the spirit. Then came the announcement of his death, which ran from mouth to mouth with the rapidity of lightning, sending a shaft of pain into many a heart that was already overflowing with gratefulness for some great service, either personal or professional.

Had Not Been Well.

Dr. Palmer had not been enjoying his usual health for some time past. Some months ago he had been suddenly stricken and upon his recovery took a short trip to Europe, but soon returned to his duties. Since that attack he had been frequently bothered with heart trouble but with almost only his iron will to draw upon, he continued to work, night and day, making rest and recreation secondary to heroic bedside service and the mind-trying work of the surgeon. For the last two or three days he had been troubled much with the organs of respiration but had refused to give up and admit that he was ill.

Thus did a brave and eventful life go out, faithful to his conscience and to his profession to the very moment when the last call came, and the final trip was made.

Sketch of His Life.

Henry Palmer was born at New Hartford, Oneida County, New York, on July 30, 1827, and was, therefore nearly sixty-eight years of age, at the time of his death. He was the son of Ephraim and Abigail (Brown) Palmer and was a descendant from English Puritan and Scotch ancestors. On his father's side he was a lineal descendant from Walter Palmer who emigrated to this country from London, England, settling at Charleston, Mass., in 1629. The line of descent of the Palmer family to which the doctor belonged was as follows: From Walter, the founder of the American family, through Gresham, George, the Rev. Christopher, who settled in Madison County, New York, in 1870, Christopher Jr., and Ephraim the father of the doctor. His mother was born at Brookfield, Madison County, N. Y., and was descended from an old New England family. Ephraim Palmer was a farmer by occupation and in 1857 removed from New York to Edgerton, Wis., where he resided until 1844, when he became a resident of Janesville and made that city his home until his death, which occurred in 1886 at the advanced age of eighty-nine years. Mrs. Palmer, the mother of the doctor, died at Edgerton in 1863.

Dr. Palmer spent his early life on his father's farm in New York state, and received his primary education in the district school. When nineteen years of age he became a student in the Whitestown and Cazenovia seminaries, and subsequently entered on a course of teaching by which he saved the money to defray the expenses of his early medical studies. On attaining his majority he found his health seriously impaired, and with the hope of recovery, he took passage on a vessel which accompanied the Grinnell Arctic expedition of 1849, spending six months in a cruise in the Arctic region, touching at various points in Greenland and Hudson Bay. In 1851, having recovered his health, he engaged in the study of medicine under the preceptorship of Doctors Marsh and Armsby of Albany, N. Y., who, at the time, were eminent physicians in that city and professors in the Albany Medical college.

Graduated in 1854.

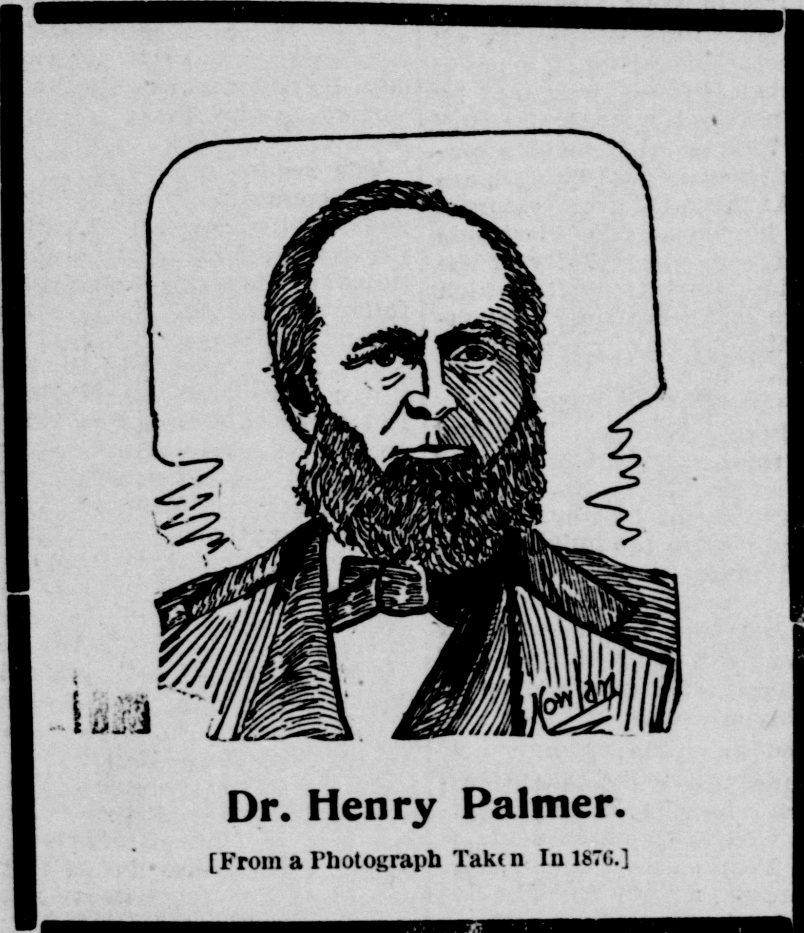

In 1854 Dr. Palmer graduated from that institution, and with such high standing that he was at once appointed resident surgeon of the Marshall In-geon General Barnes of the United States army. In August, 1864, his health having become impaired by overwork, he tendered his resignation, but received, instead of its acceptance, only a leave of absence. The general in command forwarded the resignation to the war department, endorsing it with the request that leave of absence for sufficient time to recruit his health be granted, as the good of the service demanded that he be retained. He then took a rest of a month or so and returned to his post.

Made Medical Inspector.

In the fall of the same year the doctor was appointed medical inspector of the Eighth Army Corps, with headquarters at Baltimore, which position he held until June, 1865, when he was ordered to take charge of Camp Douglas, Chicago, and close up the affairs of the hospital. Having performed that duty, he was mustered out on October 7, 1865, and for faithful and meritorious services, which was frequently brought to the notice of the war department, he was appointed lieutenant colonel by brevet, by President Johnson, March 13, 1866, the rank to date from March 13, 1865.

army at Troy, N. Y., which position he filled for two years.

At Oriskany Falls, New York, Dr. Palmer was united in marriage with Miss Edna A. Hoyt, a daughter of Noah and Almira Hoyt, their union being celebrated in November 1851. To them have been born six children, one son and five daughters; Clara, the eldest died in December 1883, Kittie died at the age of five years; William H., who graduated from the college of Physicians and Surgeons in the class of 1882, Estelle E., who now resides with her husband, Mr. Sablin of Belvidere; Eloise and Elizabeth Gertrude, who reside at home.

In 1856 Dr. Palmer came to Wisconsin and settled in Janesville which place has since been his home, his practice growing year by year until he had probably a larger clientele than any other Wisconsin physician and surgeon.

Went To The War In '61.

Shortly after the breaking out of the late war, in 1861, Dr. Palmer was commissioned surgeon of the Seventh regiment of Wisconsin Volunteers which was assigned to duty with the Army of the Potomac. Without seeking preferment, on April 4, 1862, he was appointed by President Lincoln to the position of brigade surgeon and assigned to the famous "Iron Brigade." Subsequently he was stationed at York, Pa., where the construction and superintendency of the largest hospital in the United States was placed in his hands. Mrs. Dorothy L. Dix, a distinguished hospital nurse, who was appointed superintendent of hospital nurses by special act of congress, pronounced this hospital, as conducted by Dr. Palmer, the best in the United States. When the confederate General Early, made his bold raid into Pennsylvania in the summer of 1863, he made an attack upon York with the idea of capturing the supplies and taking convalescent prisoners.

Armed All the Patients.

Dr. Palmer, who was in command of the post, at once armed all the convalescent patients, several hundred in number, and offered such gallant resistance, that the government stores and hospital supplies were safely removed before the confederates gained possession. It was at this time that the doctor was taken prisoner, but during the battle of Gettysburg, which occurred a few days later, he succeeded in making his escape and at once resumed his command of New York Post and the hospital where he was soon busily engaged in caring for the wounded from Gettysburg's bloody field.

In 1864 the rebel general Gilmore made a raid into Maryland and Pennsylvania, threatening to visit York. Appreciating the necessity of prompt action and the importance of protecting the railroads, Dr. Palmer armed his convalescents, organized a force of several hundred citizens, with which, together with the few regular troops, he proceeded into Maryland.

Did Gallant Service.

By the wisdom and courage displayed, and the promptness of his judgment, he saved a large amount of property and secured the government important military advantages. The valuable services rendered on this occasion resulted in his receiving a congratulatory letter from Major D. N. Cronch, then in command of the department of the Susquehanna, to Sur-

Palmer renewed his practice at Janesville which he pursued without interruption until 1877, when he gratified a long cherished desire and visited Europe. He left Janesville in May and returned in August having visited many cities in the old country.

Was In The Russo-Turkish War.

The war between Russia and Turkey was then in progress and the doctor had an opportunity of inspecting the Russian hospital. He was with the Russian army at Bucharest, through Roumania, when it crossed the Danube, and also witnessed the engagement that resulted in the downfall of Plevna. He also visited the chief art galleries of Europe, and on his return brought with him one of the finest art collections to be found in Southern Wisconsin. While in the old countries he wrote a number of interesting and graphic letters descriptions of what he saw abroad which were published in The Janesville Gazette and received with interest and pleasure by the public. Notwithstanding his arduous duties, the doctor also found time to prepare a lecture describing his journeys and especially noted the habits and customs of the people of Roumania, Turkey and that portion of Europe. This lecture was first delivered in Janesville in August 1877 to an audience of over 1,000 people and was afterwards delivered in many other cities by special request and always without charge.

Honored with Office.

The doctor and his wife, together with their children, were members of the Baptist church of Janesville. He was a republican in politics, and served two terms as mayor of Janesville; but was not an active partisan, his professional duties occupying his full time. In addition to the arduous duties of his extensive practice, he had found time to interest himself in various local enterprises of importance, and had exhibited much public spirit in the encouragement of all efforts to develop the material resources of the city and county. He was one of the organizers of the cotton manufacturing industries in Janesville and served as president of the cotton mill company for many years. Since 1882 he had served as president of the Merchants & Mechanics Savings bank. He was also interested in the Janesville Pickling Company, the Wisconsin Shoe Company and many other local enterprises as well as in the Oakwood Retreat Association at Lake Geneva, of which association he has served as president.

Professor In The College.

Dr. Palmer had been an active member of the Wisconsin State Medical society since its reorganization as well as a member of the American and National medical associations. For many years he has held the chair of operation surgery, clinical surgery and surgical pathology in the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Chicago. He was also the local surgeon for the Chicago & Northwestern road and as a surgeon he was the acknowledged leader of the state. Possessing cool nerve, a quick eye, and dexterity of hand, supported by a strong will and great power of endurance he had the reputation of having performed some of the most difficult and dangerous operations known to the profession. As a physician he was equally famous and skilled, and his services were in constant demand. The calls upon him came night and day, and the work that he did would tax the capacity of any ordinary man beyond endurance; yet he was always ready to respond and minister to the sufferings of his fellow man. No trial was too great, and no hardship too severe for him to endure when duty called him to the bedside of some one who was sorely afflicted.

Made Surgeon General.

Socially the doctor was a member of the Loyal Legion, of W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, Grand Army of the Republic and was the Past Department Surgeon. In recognition of his faithful services during the later war and his high standing in the profession, Dr. Palmer was appointed surgeon general of Wisconsin by Governor Smith in January 1880, which position he held the honor of filling continuously until the expiration of the term of Governor Hoard.

THE ALUMNI MET AT A BIG FEAST

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES AT A BANQUET.

Pleasing Program Was Presented and The Revelers Then Danced a Few Happy Hours Away—Closing Exercises at the School For the Blind Drew a Crowd.

The Janesville High School Alumni banquet at Concordia hall, last evening, was one of the prettiest social gatherings ever witnessed in this city. Indeed, it was a surprise to the members, and a most successful affair.

"Pretty as a Picture," was the music very appropriately selected by Smith's orchestra as the overture, which was played in a masterly manner.

S. C. Burnham then opened the literary exercises with an address of welcome to the class of '95. His remarks were brief, cordial, and well chosen. Edwin B. Halverson, president of the class of '95, responded for his classmates, thanking the alumni for their cordial welcome.

Miss Mamie Jones then favored the alumni with "A Winter Lullaby," by DeKoven, in a manner which won well merited applause. Miss Nellie Jones playing the accompaniment.

Mrs. O. H. Brand was assigned the next number, and read Holmes' "Bill and Joe," in her inimitable and pleasing manner.

"Miss Sarah Hickey, with Mrs. Minnie S. Conrad at the piano, surprised her hearers in her vocal solo, "Serenade," by Greg, which was rendered in a clear, sweet voice, winning loud applause.

Mrs. Will T. Sberer and Miss Rose Hathorn then rendered a piano duet "From Foreign Parts," by Hosokowski, winning merited applause.

The roll of classes was then called, followed by the banquet, served by G. A. Shurtleff. The tables were handsomely decorated with flowers, and at each plate a rose was placed. The china was pale blue and the Saratoga chips were served in blue crepe paper. The class of '95 occupied the table of honor near the center of the large hall, the decorations of their tables being wholly of violets and pansies, a silver banquet lamp occupying the center. The young ladies of the junior class attended the tables, and right well and ably did they do their work. During the supper the orchestra rendered a concert programme.

Supper concluded, Mrs. Hugh Menzies announced that David Tennant would respond to "Our Younger Members" and Mr. Tennant did the assigned work in a very happy vein, showing that he had not been taken by surprise.

"Betwixt and between," was assigned to Mrs. Walter Helme, and her response was well received, evincing that she had taken time to think and choose her beautiful sentences.

"Out of the Old Home into the New," was assigned to Mrs. Lee Beers. Mrs. Beers' response was in rhyme, and contained many pleasing hits, showing that she not only took an active part in the association, but also a close watch in the advancement and growth of the city schools.

The class of '95 then favored the alumni with their class songs, rendered in a faultless manner, and altogether it was one of the happiest and most pleasant events ever held in Janesville. The tables were cleared after the banquet and many enjoyed a social dance for a brief time.

EXERCISES AT THE STATE SCHOOL

The Programme Favored a Very Large Audience Last Evening.

Commencement exercises at the School for the Blind last evening, drew together nearly two thousand people, nearly all of whom were from Janesville.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1215—Magna Charta signed by King John.
 1752—Franklin drew electricity from the clouds. Franklin's discovery of the identity of lightning with electric fluid was due to long and patient study of the subject. He projected lightning rods first and to prove his theory sent a TATNALL kite into the clouds. Other scientists, acting on Franklin's data and instructions, had obtained electrical sparks from tall iron rods and elevated Leyden jars. His lightning rod was put to the test a year later and was almost as complete then as at the end of a century of trials and experiments.
 1776—George Washington took command of the American army.
 1849—James Knox Polk, eleventh president, died at Nashville, born 1795.
 1871—Commodore Josiah Tattnall, prominent Confederate naval officer, died at Savannah; born 1795.
 1868—Frederick III, emperor of Germany and king of Prussia, died; born 1832.
 1892—A tornado killed 50 people in Minnesota. New bridge over Licking river between Covington and Newport, Ky., fell and killed 40 people.

An unpleasant meeting.
 Patrick Ragan had a face on him that, as he had once remarked himself, was an "office to the landscape." Next to his homeliness his poverty was the most conspicuous part of him. An Irish neighbor met him recently, when the following colloquy ensued:
 "An' how are ye, Pat?"
 "Mighty bad, intirely. It's shtarvation that's shtarin' me in the face."
 "Is that so? Sure, an' it can't be very pleasant for anyther of yez."—Richmond Dispatch.

Not Till Then?
 When the buttons on my vest
 Tear themselves away,
 And the spots upon my coat
 Proclaim they've come to stay,

 I fondly think of thee.

HE ACCOUNTED FOR IT.
 "Are you the man of the house?"
 "Yes, sir."
 "Where's your wife?"
 "Dead, sir."

Why She Was Jubilant.
 There was a vivacious smile on her face which was most winsome. "Oh, dear me," she murmured, happily, "I've just gotten such a bargain."
 "How, dear?" inquired her friend.

Cautious.

the city. The grounds in front of the buildings had been illuminated with Chinese lanterns, a headlight and torches. All the members of the State Board of Control were present, Hans B. Warner, president of the board, delivering the address, which was mostly devoted to state institutions, he claiming that Wisconsin lead in the care of unfortunates. Superintendent Swiler, wife and daughter, and Mrs. Montgomery, matron, all of the School for the Deaf and Dumb, Delavan, were present.

The music by the pupils, under the able training of Mrs. Jones, was rendered in such an able manner as to win the applause of all present.

There were no graduates, but the exercises were given to illustrate to the public the real standing and worth of the school. All present were well repaid for their visit.

No Danger.

"Darling," she murmured, in one of those fits of soulful sentimentality common to her, "if I should die first, you would never, never marry again, would you?"

"I?" he replied with a look of infinite earnestness in his eyes and a decided tone in his voice; "I marry again? Never!"

And she smiled and was satisfied.—St. Louis Republic.

Her Best Feature.

"How inconsistent you men are. There's Tom Jones, for instance, who was always an ardent admirer of beauty, engaged to that Miss Stopclock who hasn't a single handsome feature about her."

"Oh, yes she has."
 "What?"
 "A very handsome fortune."—Brooklyn Life.

A Unique Appeal.

A Westchester county editor appeals to his subscribers in this unique way: "If you have frequent headaches, dizziness and fainting spells, accompanied by chills, chilblains, epilepsy and jaundice, it is a sign that you are not well, but are liable to die any minute. Pay your subscription a year in advance, and thus make yourself solid for a good obituary notice."—Mercury.

French Fun.

"What?"
 "How's your wife?"
 "I don't know."
 "What?"
 "I have not seen her face for the last ten years."
 "What?"
 "She paints!"—L'Intransigeant.

He (at 11:30 p. m.)—Are you ever troubled with insomnia?
 She (wearily)—Yes, very often.

There will be two ways of reaching the park, either by road entrance or by boat. The steamer Columbia will leave her dock at 1:30 p. m. and every hour during the afternoon and twenty-five cents for the round trip will be charged. Bicyclers or those coming by team will find a good road entrance, and will be charged ten cents admission at the gate. LONDON'S DERBY IS THE COCKNEY'S JOY

GREAT PLACE TO STUDY HU- MAN NATURE.

Aside From That There Is Little To Recommend it to the Average Person As the Course is Poor, The Accommodation Scant and Transportation Uncomfortable.

LONDON, May 30.—As an ethnographic study the Derby is worth going a long way to see—once. The man who braves dust and heat and confusion the second time, unless he be a horse owner, book maker or cocoa nut seller, for all three of whom there are tempting allurements of profit, should be put in a straight jacket.

Epsom Downs is admittedly the poorest of the four or five great English courses; the accommodations for the crowd are miserable, and the transportation facilities inadequate. Nevertheless, here the big event of the year is decided, and here such a crowd gathers as can be seen nowhere else in the world. Compared to this crowd the race itself with all its historic importance is the merest sideshow. It is the cockney's festival is Derby day, and on that day 'Arry and 'Arriet are seen in their full glory. Their pleasure comes from the going down to Epsom and the coming home. The rough and tumble style of the trip suits them down to the ground. Unless buoyed up by the novelty of the sight the ordinary individual would vote the fifteen mile scramble, a terrible nuisance. The dust on an occasion like Wednesday is simply smothering. The crush makes the journey a misery. Coming home especially, the rate of travel near Epsom is sometimes not more than a mile an hour. There is a jumble of four-in-hands, handsome cabs, furniture vans, meat carts and the coster barrows drawn by shaggy and ill-kept donkeys a trifle larger than Newfoundland dogs. It is just here the fun comes in for your true cockney—the London born—within sound of Bow Bells. The more confusion there is the more he likes it. But he finds pleasure in little things as well. He can't see his 'make' switching his tail to knock off a persistent fly without going into ecstasies. Sometimes a donkey is decked in trousers, and then the crowd that line the road are unable to contain their glee. As for the minstrels, a every halting place they find fresh inspiration in the way their moss-grown jokes are snapped up. The "Mistah Tambo" "would like to interrogate to you, Mistah Bones," is answered by fifty howling youths before "Mistah Bones" has the slightest chance.

The "ladies" travel to Epsom and back in furniture vans, donkey carts and the like; sing songs of the music hall sort—much sound and little sense—as they approach the city; and hold over their heads with strong assumptions of gaiety, flat parasols of colored paper with streamers flying in the breeze. But there is something forced about their glee, just as there is an undercurrent of effort about so much that characterizes the day. Especially is this true of the homeward trip when the inspiring hope of morning no longer exists. The great race has been seen or missed, the money has been landed or lost, the sandwiches eaten, the beer jar is empty. It is a trying juncture but cockney spirit responds manfully to the call. The outward semblance of joy is stoutly maintained. Not a quaver in the bray of the trio trumpet is allowed to betray any uneasiness of mind on the part of the performer. He gives no sign that he has had enough of it, and the same heroic fortitude is shown by his hearers. The concertina is played with all the air of conviction that marked the earlier performances on that instrument. Chaff is still heard on every side, and of a character not less trenchant than on the journey down, and only close listening detects the faint ground tone of melancholy that underlies it. The wearers of false noses are still greeted with cheers, but here and there the mirth betrays its unreality by slightly "forcing the note." The feeling begins to spread that such joyousness is too ostentatious to be genuine and smiles are succeeded on many countenances by a gentle sadness which deepens as the sun sinks before the horizon and twilight descends upon the scene.

OSCAR HALVERSON HURT BY A FALL Dressing His Injury Was Probably Dr. Palmer's Last Surgical Work.

Oscar Halverson, the thirteen year old son of Martin Halverson, met with a painful misfortune last evening at his home, 58 Cherry street, resulting in the breaking of his collar bone. He was at play in the yard, running and jumping, and while running he struck a wire with the whole force of his moving body and was thrown backward to the ground, striking heavily on his shoulder, breaking his collar bone. He was taken to Dr. Henry Palmer's office, where the bone was put in place and bandaged at 9 o'clock, this probably being the last surgical work performed by Dr. Palmer, although at that time there was a large number of patients in waiting to be treated.

Plans are now in the hands of Architect Kemp, calling for a modern three-story red brick building, to cost in the neighborhood of $14,000. The block will contain two stores fronting on Main street, with the upper stories fitted up as flats which will be complete in every way. The building will not run back as far as Park street, but will be sixty-five feet long. SEASONABLE NOTES.

Cool Alpaca Again Worn—Beautiful and Costly Buttons.

Black, dark blue, gray and brown will remain throughout the season popular colors for day dresses, brightened, of course, in whatever way the wearers will. Many persons have a lingering love for quiet hues and are best pleased to gratify the natural desire for color, with touches of it on a sober, quiet hued background.

Alpaca is once again a favorite material and will be worn throughout the season, not only made into fashionable coats and skirts, but into more elaborate afternoon toilets.

Buttons grow more beautiful every day and are a conspicuous feature of the fashionable costumes of the season, if not in profusion yet to a costly extent, for one or two pairs now cost more than two or three dozen in former times. Copied from the antique, with latter day taste and elegance of workmanship, nothing looks better, either on light or dark dresses, than the cut crystal and silver or gold mounted buttons.

Green and blue is a combination decidedly fashionable at present. With a deep blue skirt, a bodice of pale green silk is quite a la mode.

Black lace gowns over a colored silk lining are still worn. They are often made with a blouse of black net or lace embroidered with jet or sequins and a skirt of plain lace, over changeable silk.

The woman who can afford to have but one bright silk petticoat will do well to trim it with white or cream rather than black lace, as the latter may be worn only with dark gowns, while the pale tones will do for both light and dark costumes.

Tinted note paper is never really out of fashion, although many women prefer to always use white. Pale gray paper is one of the prettiest of the tinted varieties, with a deeper gray or green cipher embossed with gold or silver.

The sketch shows a race gown of straw crepon. The bodice is adorned with lengthwise bands of white guipure insertion and two rows of black satin choux. The bodice is full and has a pointed yoke of white guipure with two satin choux. The balloon sleeves terminate at the elbow under a band of black satin. The belt and collar are also of black satin.

PARISIAN NOTES.

Immense Crepon Ruches and Ribbon Ruffs For the Neck.

A novelty in neck trimmings consists in tacking a rather broad, but finely striped black and white silk ribbon inside the neck band of the dress in not too deep plaits, whence it stands out in an original manner somewhat after the fashion of a frill and enframes the face becomingly. Lace trimmed cambric front plaits, turn over collars and cuffs, have become the rage and are to be seen in every shop window.

When there is a desire to moderate the intensity of color gowns of the fashionable blue tint, large neck ruches are employed, of bluish gray gauze, very light. White embroideries, yellow lace and ecru guipure are also much worn on blue gowns. These ruches are seen in other tones also and in changeable taffeta and tulle as well as in gauze and are astonishingly voluminous. With large sleeves and a large hat the head is quite dwarfed by them, while their warmth fits them better for winter than for summer wear.

Rose pink is one of the colors of the season and is charmingly combined with brown and black. Muslins with a printed pattern of roses are dainty and pretty.

Short capes of lace over linings of rose, mauve or green changeable silk are the extreme of fashion. They have immense ruches of gauze or great bows at the back of the neck of black satin ribbon. Other capes are of cut cloth or open embroidery, over contrasting linings, and are trimmed with flowers.

Skirts are so full that Parisian modistes no longer line them all the way up with haircloth, as it renders them too heavy and clumsy for endurance. A stiff facing 12 or 18 inches deep is employed, and the skirt is lined throughout with silk.

An illustration is given of a walking costume of giraffe crepon. The top of the bodice forms a corselet opening over a chemise of point de venise lined with giraffe silk. The collar, bretelles and shoulder knots are of giraffe satin. The bouffant sleeves are of giraffe bengaline. The toque is also of the last named material and is trimmed with roses and giraffe ribbon.

JUDIC CHOLET.

How They Got Rich.

When I talk to a man who has made a fortune by advertising, I wonder that anybody who has anything to sell does not go and do likewise. One man told me a day or two ago that his concern, with a nominal capital of $100,000, only $30,000 of which was paid in, has divided in a single year among three partners profits to the amount of $750,000, and that exclusive of salaries of $50,000 and $25,000 drawn by two members of the firm. Ten or twelve years ago this man was a drug clerk on a small salary in a western town and is now one of the millionaires of New York. "Without advertising I might have made a living," he said, "but it was advertising that made me rich, and advertising a very simple commodity at that."

Another man, who bears similar testimony, tells me that his concern, which began by investing $10,000 a year in advertising, increased the amount every year according to their increase of business, and this year expects to spend $1,000,000. Still another, who confined himself entirely to the newspapers and magazines in the exploitation of his specialty, never having touched a dead wall, a fence or the broad side of a barn with poster or paintbrush, and never employing a salesman, has a cool million salted down in real estate, keeps his yacht and spends most of the year abroad in luxurious living.

Many other men of my acquaintance resting in ease and wealth have told me stories of their own experience with the same moral. Some day I am going to print these stories and give the names of the heroes.—Major Handy in Chicago Times-Herald.

The Kangaroo.

As showing the force of maternal love among the lower animals there are few more pathetic incidents than the following, which comes from Australia:

During a severe drought the owner of a country station was sitting one evening on the balcony outside his house when he was surprised to notice a kangaroo lingering about, alternately approaching and retiring from the house, as though half in doubt and fear what to do. At length she approached the water pails, and taking a young one from her pouch held it to the water to drink.

While her baby was satisfying its thirst the mother was quivering all over with excitement, for she was but a few feet away from the balcony, where one of her great foes was sitting, watching her. The little one having finished drinking, it was replaced in the pouch, and the old kangaroo started off at a rapid pace.

When the natural timidity of the kangaroo is taken into account, it will be recognized what astonishing bravery this affectionate mother betrayed.—Woman's Journal.

A TRUE STORY.

Last month I cleared, after paying all expenses, $23.38; the month before $18.56 and have at the same time attended to my regular business. I believe anyone, anywhere, can do as well, as I have not a particularly good location and not much experience. When you have an article that every family wants, it is very easy selling it. It seems strange that a good, cheap dish washer was never before placed on the market. With the Perfection, which sells for $5 you can wash and dry the dishes for a family in two minutes, without putting the hands in water. As soon as people see the washer work, they want one, and that is why so much money can be made so quickly. For full particulars address The Perfection Mfg. Co. Station O, Englewood, Ill. I feel convinced that any lady or gentleman, in any location can make $5 to $10 a day, as every family will very soon have a dish washer. Try it and publish your experience for the benefit of others. ALICE O.

When occasion demands its use, try De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is cooling to burns, stops pain instantly, cleanses, a perfect healer for scalds or skin eruptions. Always cures piles. C. D. Stevens.

THE Milwaukee District Baptist convention opened at Sheboygan.

A DIFFICULT POINT.

Marion—Oh, Laura! I don't know what to do. Fred has promised that he will stop drinking if I will marry him, and Charlie says he'll take to drink if I don't marry him.—Judy.

YOUR GOOD HEALTH, if you're a suffering woman, demands Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There's no other medicine like it, for women's peculiar ills. No matter how distressing your symptoms, it relieves your aches and pains, and if faithfully used will bring a permanent cure in every chronic weakness or derangement, in catarrhal inflammation, and in the displacements of women. West Liberty, O. Dr. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—I can cheerfully recommend your valuable medicine, the "Favorite Prescription," to suffering females. Three years ago my health became so poor that I was scarcely able to help with the household duties. I was persuaded to try your medicine, and I purchased six bottles. That, with the local treatment you advised, made me strong and well. My sister has used it in the family with like results.

THE best investment in real estate is to keep buildings well painted. Paint protects the house and saves repairs. You sometimes want to sell—many a good house has remained unsold for want of paint. The rule should be, though, "the best paint or none." That means

MATERIALS AND COLORS.

Bright and Striking Tints—Butter Color and Raspberry.

Veiling is extremely fashionable. Many of the corsage blouses have gilets of it, a lighter shade of veiling being introduced underneath to give an electric effect. For country wear a great deal of white will be adopted, as will also exquisite India muslins of Louis XVI design on a butter yellow, raspberry or strawberry ground. There are lovely muslins in canary yellow.

TAFFETA GOWN.

with a bordering of small palm leaves. It goes without saying that these muslins are trimmed with all that is beautiful in lace and ribbons and with the Louis XVI hats will bring into vogue that rustic elegance of the Trianon.

Although all colors are fashionable just now, blue is particularly so in Paris, the keen bluet shades prevailing, although sky and water blues are also seen. In crepon, taffeta, silk and wool and fancy weaves blue is worn more or less by everybody, and as it is a color less generally becoming than almost any other the effect is often unsatisfactory. Combined with yellow, which is also fashionable, blue is not so trying, and dark or fallow women who are clever enough to understand this follow the mode by having a bluet skirt and a yellow bodice, thereby wearing two fashionable colors at once and achieving a striking contrast, which is now quite the thing. Pale gray and blue is another combination much liked, although not at all a startling one. A scarlet straw hat, trimmed with a profusion of bluet of all shades, is astonishing enough to make up for it however.

Gray is the preferred tone for short cloth capes for useful wear. As for the ornamental ones, they are of the brightest colors and most fanciful designs, unlimited as to fullness and trimming.

Today's illustration shows a costume of broche taffeta in two tones of mauve. The godet skirt has a tiny frill of green bengaline under the hem and three green ribbons arranged lengthwise on the tablier and terminated by choux. The bodice has a full front and is adorned with broches of green ribbon before and behind. The draped belt and collar are of green bengaline, the latter ornamented with choux. The halloon sleeves end at the elbow and are trimmed with ribbon bands and choux. The toque is of mauve poppies, with a green ribbon bow.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Threaten a Lynching.

Peoria, Ill., June 15.—A hundred farmers living in the vicinity of Alta, this county, have organized a posse and are searching the country for R. W. Goddard, who is wanted for attempting criminal assaults on the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. Bliss and the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. Ford. The latter declares he will shoot the offender on sight, and the excitement is at fever heat. Goddard was formerly a resident here, is a blacksmith, and has a wife and two children.

Cutworms in Kentucky Tobacco.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 15.—About six weeks ago there were reports of ravages of the army worm in Kentucky, but the stories subsided until yesterday, when reports came that in Morgan county, Ky., cutworms are working injuriously on young tobacco plants. Similar reports came from Owen county and Booth county, Ky., and Brown county, Ohio. The state commissioner of agriculture gives the tobacco acreage in Kentucky as 80 per cent, and the condition as 68 per cent.

Contesting Fred Douglass' Will.

Rochester, N. Y., June 15.—Efforts to settle the Frederick Douglass will contest out of court have failed, and Mrs. Nathan Sprague, a daughter of Mr. Douglass, will commence a suit to enforce her rights. The action will be against Mrs. Douglass, the widow; her brother and Lewis H. Douglass, who are the administrators of the estate. It is claimed by Mrs. Sprague that by the most recent arrangements Mrs. Douglass is to get all of the estate that is in sight.

Germanians "Tre" Duped.

Berlin, June 15.—In view of the unexpected achievements of Russian diplomacy, especially in regard to the Chinese loan, it is thought here the German ambassador in St. Petersburg, and the German minister at Peking, have been duped. It is probable that they will both be recalled.
